FALCON NEWS

PRINCIPAL, CLAYTON COBB
ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL, KATHERINE SUCKLE

Dear St. Joseph Families,
Today, let us begin by expressing gratitude for a job well done at Falcon Fest. Lauren Salvail and the entire festival crew did an amazing job coordinating an event truly worthy of our 75th anniversary celebration. Events like this can seem to run without a hitch, but only when a group of dedicated people works toward a common goal.
Falcon Fest also succeeds because our families and faculty generously give their time and talent. As the event grows, it thrives because members of our school community step forward to serve in any capacity. To all of our volunteers, thank you.
Falcon Fest exists to further St. Joseph Catholic School's mission. Our Partners in Education not only make Falcon Fest possible, but also provide the support our school relies on each year. Thank you for your commitment to ensuring our students and faculty succeed and our school's needs are met.
St. Joseph exists to form and educate our students. Still, events like Falcon Fest add another layer of support by bringing our community together in celebration. Let us give thanks for such a wonderful time, and let us pray that our efforts continue to bear fruit.

St. Joseph, pray for us.

VIRTUE OF MEEKNESS

DEFINITION:

Serenity of spirit while focusing on the needs of others.

PRAYER:

Dear Jesus, please be King of my heart, especially when I am frustrated or angry. In those moments give me the grace to use all my emotions for the good.

ST. THERESE OF LISIEUX

Thérèse was a young French girl who entered a Carmelite convent when she was fifteen years old. She practiced the virtue of meekness by loving all the other nuns, even those who annoyed her. She strove to love not through grand or heroic gestures but by little actions for God and her Insisters. The other nuns, upon Thérèse's death, hardly knew of her spiritual greatness. Today St. Thérèse is a co-patroness of the missions and a Doctor of the Church. Her autobiography and other writings have brought many to a deeper walk with God.
